

Houndsley and Catina Group Activity

Catina really wants to be a famous writer, but then she decides that she will find something she enjoys and become famous at that. Have each person share with the group what they imagine they will be famous for one day. In the space below, draw a picture of your future famous self!

