

In pairs, take turns creating a new story about Max. One person should play the narrator while the other plays Max. What does the narrator say? How does Max react? Improvise a scene together.

